President Macron also announced the deployment of a military hospital with 30 beds, (at least) and including nurses, doctors at least, which will be installed tomorrow. This hospital will be run by two staff headquarters. The French head of state has repeatedly mentioned the very evocative and serious term of "We are at war (Sanitary). In France, 6,633 cases are recorded and 148 deaths but the epidemic « is only at its beginning », as President Macron said. There is an exponential growth in the case stamp but not in the number of deaths, it is extremely fast, with 21 more deaths in 24 hours and 1,210 additional cases. The mathematical model then shows that the conditions we confirm can reduce the number of new cases, with an R_0
